

The School of Fine Arts First Baptist Decatur, AL

Spring 2021

Musikgarten is an internationally acclaimed and developmentally appropriate music and movement program for young children, ages 3 months- 4 years, with their parents/caregivers. Young students are exposed to classical and folk music from around the world while singing, playing instruments, repeating tonal patterns, and more.

For families looking for a COVID-19 option, bring your picnic blanket and join us outside for this six-week class.
